

II DSM Zajęcia fakultatywne: American culture for translators

The lecture covers a range of topics which are significant for translators but are usually not much discussed in standard classes on American culture, e.g. gun rights, law enforcement, medical care, football, rodeo, housing, employment, retirement, regional food etc. The lecture focuses on issues where American practice diverges from European standards, which might lead to problems in translation.